

the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

November: For the prevention of suicide

ET us pray that those who are struggling with suicidal thoughts might find the support, care, and love they need in their community, and be open to the beauty of life.

December: For Christians in areas of conflict

ET us pray that Christians living in areas of war or conflict, especially in the Middle East, might be seeds of peace, reconciliation, and hope.

THE Pope's Intentions (2025)

January: For the right to an education

ET us pray for migrants, refugees, and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

February: For vocations to priesthood and religious life

ET us pray that the ecclesial community might welcome the desires and doubts of those young people who feel a call to serve Christ's mission in the priesthood and religious life.

March: For families in crisis

ET us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.

April: For the use of new technologies

ET us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

May: For working conditions

ET us pray that through work, each person might find fulfilment, families might be sustained in dignity, and that society might be humanized.

June: That the world might grow in compassion

ET us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

July: For formation in discernment

ET us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

August: For mutual coexistence

ET us pray that societies where coexistence seems more difficult might not succumb to the temptation of confrontation for ethnic, political, religious, or ideological reasons.

September: For our relationship with all of creation

ET us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

October: For collaboration between different religious traditions

E pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting
